What is the “Interior Scholarship”?

The “Interior Scholarship” is the AIT-Scholarship of the Sto Foundation pursuing the objective to financially support talented interior design students for one year.

Who is entitled to apply?

Students of interior design (or comparable degree courses) are eligible if they are enrolled at a European University and at least at the end of their second year.

What does the scholarship offer?

The scholarship holders receive a monthly financial support for one year. The total support is EUR 24,000 which is divided out by the total number of scholarship holders (two scholars: the monthly grant will be EUR 1,000 for one year, three scholars: the monthly grant will be EUR 670 for one year, four scholars: the monthly grant will be EUR 500 for one year). Additionally, they are offered the possibility to present their works at an AIT-ArchitekturSalon or a worldwide known trade fair which is related to interior design.

What are the qualifications scholarship holders have to fulfil?

Study-related project works as well as an impromptu project have to be submitted: “WEAVING” How does nature take over space? How does space take over nature? Define spaces in-between, which can evolve when considering the coexistence of nature and space.

Who decides on the selection of the scholars?

The jury consists of Prof. Peter Cheret (Representative of the Sto Foundation and Cheret Bozic Architekten BDA DWB), Tamara Pallasch (pallasch interiordesign), Giorgio Gullotta (GIORGIO GULLOTTA ARCHITEKTEN), Uwe Koos (Chairman of the board of the Sto Foundation), Sabine Krumrey (brandherm + krumrey interior architecture), Ushi Tamborriello (ushitamborriello Innenarchitektur Szenenbild) and Kristina Bacht (Curator AIT-ArchitekturSalons, Publishing Director GKT).
